

Q. Will my people be asked to buy any insurance of investments or sell anything—is this a get-rich scheme?”

A. No! We are educators. We do not promote or sell insurance or investments and this is not a get-rich-quick scheme. We do make a 192-page textbook available for $44.00 at the seminar, but this is strictly optional.

Q. What is the charge for the seminar?

A. The fee varies depending on how your church wishes to handle this. We can arrange a set speaker's fee or charge tuition of $20.00 to $35.00 per person (a spouse can attend at no charge). In some cases, we opt for a “voluntary value-based tuition”. Some financial institutions have been known to underwrite the program for churches. There is also a $5.00 workbook fee per person.

Q. Will you provide our church with promotional materials?

A. Yes, we can provide materials you can use to promote the seminar, including newsletter and bulletin inserts.

Q. How much notice do you need to schedule a seminar at our church?

A. We usually require 3 to 4 weeks notice. If you have a date in mind, please let me know as soon as possible.

Q. Are you available to make a brief announcement during our Sunday Church service prior to the seminar?

A. Yes, in most cases, especially if we live close to your city.

Q. Do you have references?

A. Yes, a list can be provided at your request. We can also provide you with letters of testimony and endorsements from other pastors.

Q. What is your overall goal in coming to our church?

A. The Bible is quite clear that God does not want His people to be in debt. I believe I have a mission to free all of God's people from debt bondage and show them how to experience true prosperity and abundance. Being a debtor myself, I discovered practical and effective methods to eliminate that debt and live according to God's plan for me. I simply want to share that information with as many people as possible.

Q. Is that your only goal?

A. No. Another goal is to reach the “unchurched.” According to church pollster George Barna “...an overwhelming 92% of non-Christians believe the church isn't very sensitive to their needs.” By offering non-Christians a proven pathway out of debt (as an outreach ministry) many will see your church as relevant and we pray that they will choose to come back and become a part of your church family.

Q. Finally, what is the biggest complaint you hear from those attending the seminar?

A. The biggest complaint is that the seminar is too short. Time passes very quickly for those in attendance. There is a deep need in our churches in the area of personal money and management and people are hungry for help.

Please give me a call today and let me be of service to you.

Invest in Your Debt Seminar Questions and Answers

As I talk with ministers regarding this seminar, a few questions seem to come up more often than others. Below is an attempt to answer the most frequently asked questions:

Q. Just what is an Invest In Your Debt Seminar?

A. It is an intensive three-hour seminar that will not only teach your people why God does not want them to be in debt. They will learn that by “investing” in their debt they can actually pay off all their consumer debt in just 1-3 years and then eliminate their mortgage in another 3-5 years, with the money they make now.

Q. What is the best time to hold the seminar?

A. Typically, the best time is on a Saturday morning or Tuesday and Wednesday night. Many pastors have found that having a “potluck” before the seminar helps to get people there. The seminar can also be held in evening; some churches have offered it during Wednesday evening service.
